

I am writing to express my opposition to the use of Broadband over Power Line technology in the US. It would cause extreme interference with existing radio services